

I am in favor of removing the Morse Code requirement for Amateur Radio. The hobby is on the decline and we may be losing an important resource for emergency response in this country. The Morse code requirement has stood in my way from obtaining the General Class license.

Sincerely,

Christopher Marklund